

Table of Contents
The Italian Law Journal
Special Issue

Hybridizations, Contaminations, Triangulations: Itineraries in Comparative Law Through the Legal Systems of Italy and Japan

edited by Giorgio F. Colombo

GIORGIO F. COLOMBO, Introduction	1
ANDREA ORTOLANI, Legal Systems and Legal Families: Italy and Japan in Comparative Perspective	7
ANTONELLO MIRANDA, The Bleeding of Legal Rules Between Rights and Limits, in the Age of Migration Flows and the Crisis of the Nations	23
PIERLUIGI DIGENNARO, Anti-Discrimination Legislation and Work Placement for Persons with Disabilities. A Comparison Between Italy and Japan	39
MICHELA RIMINUCCI, Indirect Discrimination in Japanese Law: A European Perspective	55
POMPEO POLITO, The Protection of Our Image: Between the Right to One's Own Image and the Right of Publicity	69
GIACOMO MANNOCCI, The Public Administration and the Citizens Privacy Protection. A Comparison Between European Union and Japan	83
MATTEO DRAGONI, Software and Patent Law: Reverse Contaminations, Hybridizations and Trends, Observed Through the Legal Systems of Italy (and the EPC System), Japan, and the United States	95

GIUSEPPE GENNARI AND TAKESHI MATSUDA, Scientific Evidence and Criminal Proceedings: The Italian and Japanese Experience	115
MASAKI SAKURAMOTO, Current Situation of Consumer Bankruptcy in Japan	129
SEIYO KOJIMA, Contribution-Benefit Relationship in Social Security in Italy and Japan	145
SEAN MCGINTY, Legal Families and the Birth, Growth and Death of a Corporate Law Rule	159
FRANCO SERENA, Is the CISG a Useful Tool for the Interpretation of the Newly Reformed Minpō?	177